

FLF 110: More ReflectionsName:*Date:

I. At this point in your college career and in this class,

- What do you think a teacher's job is?

- What do you think a student's job is?

II. Please write a short narrative about you and French. For example, you could write about when you first started learning French or about France, if you've visited a place where French is spoken, what interests you about French, etc?
