

I. At this point in your college career and in this class,

- What do you think a teacher's job is?

- What do you think a student's job is?

II. Please write a short narrative about you and reading. For example, you could write about what you remember about learning to read, being read to, your favorite books over the years, and what you like to read now.